WHAT'S TH' MATTER WITH TH' WATER? IT'S BIT TASTY

Nobody Knows Why, but All Noses Know That Something Is Spoiled Somewhere

Phew!

What's the matter with the water? All Glendale wants to know. And the answer is—

Phew!

Health officials say that drinking the—er—water will not harm health.

But who wants to drink it?

City officials today made statements concerning the water—or the taste. The Evening News publishes what the officials say.

Many people today made statements concerning the water—or the taste. The Evening News refrains from publishing what the people say except—

"Phew!"

Something's the matter with the water—everyone is agreed on that. But what? Ah! That's the question. Here are the official answers:

Health Officer's Statement

DR. J. E. ECKLES, city health officer—The objectionable taste which has been present in the water for the past several days has not been caused by the adding of anything to the water, and it is not detrimental to health in any way. It is due to a change in the water system and the reversing of the water flow. The canyon flow has been cut off entirely and the flow from the pumps at the Brand pumping plant started. There has been considerable cutting into the mains and the adding of new pipes. This gives an opportunity for a quantity of iron rust and so forth to get into the water. Chemical analysis shows nothing detrimental to health. Only the amount of chlorine required by law has been used in the water in order to keep down bacterial contamination and that has been in the canyon stream, which has been shut off for several days. The canyon stream will be turned back into the pipes and there will probably be no further trouble when the usual line of flow begins.

What Inspector Says

PAUL G. WELLS, city sanitary inspector—The use of chlorine in the water was discontinued about a year ago. Bacteria count has been found

Local Club Women at Large Convention

Mrs. William Fitzgerald, state president of women's clubs, representing 55,000 women of the state, spoke for the state executive board at the district convention of women's clubs held at Santa Monica commending the initiation and ratification of the four-power treaty by the President and Senate, and also emphasized the women's desire for world peace.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, and other members and delegates of the women's clubs of Glendale are attending the convention, which began yesterday and will continue until tomorrow night, at which time the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale will give the program, which will include the three one-act plays which were produced with such success recently by the members of the section under the direction of the curator, Mrs. R. E. Chase, who is also district chairman of drama.

Many Girls Present at Circle Club Meet

The Christian Circle club met last night at the Baptist church with ninety-six girls present. The dinner was served by the women of the Congregational church and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Robert Cavenagh of LaBreque Exposition Co. Comes to Arrange for Merchants' Exposition and Automobile Show Here in May or June

Robert Cavenagh, representing the LaBreque Exposition Co. enterprises, which staged the highly successful Greater Glendale Merchants' Exposition and Automobile Show in this city last year, arrived in Glendale this morning to arrange for the 1922 event.

The exposition company will come here some time in May or June after their Oakland show, it is stated, having just opened the season at Fresno. Mr. Cavenagh will have the proposition presented the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association board of directors the first of the week and dates definitely decided upon.

This year's features are greater than ever before, "Colonel" LaBreque having had an eight-foot runway especially built for the display of motorcars, as well as other novelties including the living models wearing the latest style creations.

Mr. Cavenagh was surprised to learn that others claiming themselves to be associated with LaBreque's former enterprises were in the city. He states they are unknown to "Colonel" LaBreque and should not be received as having any connection whatsoever with his organization.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS TALK ABOUT NUMBER OF PROJECTS OF INTEREST

Civic and School Subjects, Also Art and Music Are Under Consideration at Luncheon on Tuesday

ART, music, publicity, industrial, civic and school subjects were discussed at random before the Glendale Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday afternoon, with the result that no better way of presenting the several topics can be made, other than to make the several topics stand alone. So here you are:

STATE BANK HOLDS BIG BANQUET AND 'GET-TO-GETHER'

Several Score Present to Hear Inspiring Talks and Also Fine Musical Program

Sixty-four stockholders, directors and employes of the Glendale State Bank, with their wives and friends, dined last night in the Chamber of Commerce banquet hall and learned much about each other, as well as the service that institution renders the community.

It was a banquet long to be remembered, with such speakers as John Hyde Braly telling of his lifetime's experiences, vividly relating how his financial house in Los Angeles came through the panic of 1893 and other intimacies that are seldom heard on the street.

W. E. Evans Toastmaster

After the dinner, A. R. Eastman, president of the bank, introduced Attorney W. E. Evans, a director, as toastmaster and he briefly outlined the objects of the "get-together." He related the first efforts of those organizing the bank about a year ago, their selection of Mr. Eastman to take charge, because of his wide experience, and emphasized the fact that the Glendale State Bank stands paramount as a local institution, every stockholder being a resident of this city.

Mr. Eastman was called upon to tell of the progress, future possibilities and ambitions of the bank and the figures and facts of its splendid growth were a gratifying revelation. He urged the co-operation of stockholders, which is necessary in the further success and praised the directors for their loyal attention.

C. D. Lusby Speaks

C. D. Lusby, cashier, introduced as one of the "oldest" bankers in Glendale, took service as his topic and impressed his hearers with the

Mrs. A. H. Koverman Gives Unusual Party

Mrs. A. H. Koverman of 915 East Lomita avenue was the hostess at her home yesterday at a novel and unique affair known as a "Grandmothers' luncheon." Her four guests included Mrs. M. A. Venhoff, Mrs. F. B. Huseman, Mrs. C. F. Eyman and Mrs. F. R. Huseman, all of whom are residents of this city and who are also grandmothers. Following the luncheon the women enjoyed themselves in "talking over old times" and taking pictures.

Roy L. Kent Co. Is Given Plant Contract

W. E. Hewitt of the Glendale Laundry has let a contract to the Roy L. Kent company of 130 South Brand boulevard to construct a $6000 addition to his plant, which will house new machinery made necessary by the growth of Glendale. Construction will start immediately.

School Survey Committee's Report Is Heartily Indorsed

After the school survey committee's preliminary report was heartily indorsed, Director Richardson D. White moved that a committee of five be named to actively campaign in behalf of the $600,000 high school bond issue which comes before the people on May 2.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, secretary of the survey committee, stated that members on Wednesday morning at 8:45 o'clock would start work on an extensive survey of the entire city school situation, visiting each of the grammar schools and learning the conditions first hand.

W. Q. Widdows, chairman, hopes to have the work well in hand by the next meeting of the board, but the report published yesterday was believed essential to success of the high school's program of development.

Construction of Plant to Cost $38,000 Begins at Once

The successful establishment of the Power Implement Machine company here was announced by Secretary James M. Rhoades, who stated that the deal with Harry E. White for part of his property at the intersection of San Fernando boulevard and Glendale avenue had been placed in escrow.

Construction will commence immediately on a $38,000 factory building, according to the report, and the equipment will be moved by J. J. Ferlin from Modesto, where his plant is now located. The Zanon mower for tractors and other patented devices will be produced.

This notable investment in Glendale and the employment of 25 men to start is the result of the activities of the Chamber in showing Messrs. Ferlin and Johnson the possibilities of the strategic location of their site at the gateway to the inland empire of California and within close proximity to Los Angeles.

Special Committee Selected to Plan for Display Arts

Bert Short, business manager of the California Academy of Music which maintains its Glendale studio at Lexington Drive and Brand boulevard, addressed the directors in behalf of the Sculptors' Guild, which would be pleased to hold an exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium for three or four days during the coming month.

In connection with this art exhibit, local painters—and Mr. Short said that there are some world-famed artists in Glendale—would be glad to hang their canvases and photographic portraits for the inspection of their townspeople.

Then, to make matters more interesting, musical programs could be arranged for afternoons and evenings which would combine the arts in an attractive way. So favorably were the directors impressed that a special committee was named to assist Mr. Short and Secretary Rhoades in working out the details of the plan.

Mayor Spencer Robinson's 'Best Speech' for Artists

CHINAWARE HISTORY IS EXPLAINED TO CLUB WOMEN

H. B. Tuttle Gives Various Facts of Interest; Exhibition of Collection Attracts

The story of the history of chinaware, and of how the largest china factory in the world is in America, as well as how the most durable and also the finest china is being made in this country, was told the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club at the meeting at Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon by H. B. Tuttle of a large supply company of Los Angeles, and who also had a most interesting collection of various makes of chinaware and pottery on exhibition.

In the absence of Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president, who was in attendance at the district convention at Santa Monica, Mrs. A. M. Williams, first vice-president, called the meeting to order. Incorporating many of the viewpoints expressed by Judge Summerfield in his recent address before the Tuesday club members on "More Uniform Marriage and Divorce Laws," a resolution was read at yesterday's meeting, which will be presented at the district convention of women's clubs, that legislation be urged to make it necessary to apply for marriage licenses not less than fifteen days before the date of the contemplated marriage and also urging uniform divorce laws.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Williams regarding a change which had been made in the program for next Tuesday. Katherine Phillips Edson, who was to have appeared at that time, having been called north. Brahm Van den Berg, famous pianist, will appear at that time through the courtesy of the Loomis-Shuck Music company.

Now Made in America

In the brief history of porcelains Mr. Tuttle stated:

"It is not generally known that wonderful china is now being made in America. The history of china was taken chiefly from the records of the Chinese dynasties. As far back as 2698 B. C. there is a record of fired pottery being made, in 187 B. C. there is a record of making porcelain and in 265 A. D. was the first time in the history of the world where color was placed against china, and that color was blue. Then

Women's Auxiliary of Legion Plans Social

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion Post is planning a joint social night on Monday, April 3, for the post and auxiliary members, and for which a musical and artistic program of perfection is being arranged. Those who can and do not avail themselves of the opportunity of attending "will live to regret," according to Mrs. Don Packer, chairman of the social and entertainment committee.

The climax of the program will be an interesting and enlightening talk on the work of the auxiliary, community, state or national, by Mrs. Carol Marks, national first vice-president of the Women's Auxiliary.

The members of the local auxiliary feel very fortunate in securing a national officer as speaker for that night. Last, but not least, and this should be especially noted by the boys, there will be a bountiful and tasty repast served, free of charge, to all. The time and place is Monday night, April 3, at American Legion hall.

Intermediate Teams Clash in Ball Game

The most exciting game of the week at the Intermediate school was the indoor ball conflict staged Tuesday noon between the A-8-III and A-8-IV classes, the III's winning by one run with a score of 6-5.

John Winger and Harold Begg formed the battery for the IV's and put up a good fight. Grant Abbott and James Smith also starred for the IV's.

Vernon Boone pitched two innings for the winning team, then gave up the box to Armand Dair, whose curves proved too much for the IV's. Theodore Prutzman and John Franklin both showed signs of good material in the making. The two teams were very evenly matched and the game practically lost through errors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nims to Return to Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nims of Oklahoma City were in Glendale Tuesday making a farewell call at the home of old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Boicourt of 534 East Windsor Road, preparatory to leaving next Tuesday for their home. The Nims made the journey across the country by motor last August and have spent the most of the time since arriving in Southern California, at Long Beach, but have made numerous visits to Glendale.

Mr. Nims was secretary and treasurer of an oil company, but is practically retired, and plans to return to the Pacific coast in the late summer for he says "California is the only state in America" for him.

NAMES OF WINNERS IN MUSIC CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED

Remarkable Showing Is Made by Pupils; More Prizes Are Needed by Committee

"I am quite proud of the boys and girls!" exclaimed Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, head of the music department of Glendale Union high school, this morning, commenting upon the fact that fifty-five of the sixty-nine high school students who entered the music memory contest, had been awarded first place, and eighty-four grammar school students have been awarded first place also.

D. Ripley Jackson, chairman of the prize committee, is elated over the large number of perfect answers submitted at the final tryouts. It is his desire to secure enough cash prizes for all. If this is not done, he states, some method of elimination must be chosen.

In judging the cards turned in Saturday morning at the conclusion of the organ recital at the T. D. & L. Theatre, during which Wesley Kuhnle played twelve of the studied selections, it was decided that correct answers for ten out of the twelve would give first place for high school students and nine out of the twelve would suffice to give grammar school pupils first place.

Great Enthusiasm

Two per cent was deducted from the high school cards for every misspelled word and one per cent from the grammar school cards.

"We tried in every way we could to make the contest absolutely fair," stated Mrs. Gibson. "Our great object was to encourage the children in something which might be as big and vital as this has been. The children met it with wonderful enthusiasm."

Ripley D. Jackson commented upon the fact that only twenty perfect answers had been turned in out of 2000 in the final try-out at San Diego.

The prizes for the contest will be awarded April 7.

High School Winners

High school students whose cards were graded 100 per cent follow: Erma Lucas, Edith Bayley, Esther Phillipi, Lois M. Kimball, Julia Robinson, Louise Sanders, Carmen Kinzy, Dorothy Buss, Florence Bruce, Virginia Harsh, Ruth E. E. Geis, Fred-

Miss Alice Frank to Wed Harry A. James

The engagement of Miss Alice Frank, daughter of Mrs. H. F. Frank, of 1558 East Wilson avenue, to Harry A. James of Glendale, was announced at a party given last night by Miss Lorraine Mitchell at her home, 2001 Kenneth Road. The wedding will take place Tuesday night, April 18, at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Frank, whose father was the late Eugene Frank, an artist of note, has many friends in Glendale and other cities of the southland. She received her education abroad and has been spending some time recently in Dallas, Tex., and vicinity, where she was disposing of a collection of her father's paintings. Mr. James has been interested in the production of church and educational films.

The invited guests at this delightful social affair included Miss Alice Frank, Harry A. James, Mrs. Harriet Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frank of Hollywood, Miss Alice Rieterman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Legge, Miss Myrtle Pulliam, Mrs. Helen Sawyer, Robert Grumbling, H. S. Webb, John Smalley, Mr. Van Valkenburg of Hollywood, Miss Annie MacIntyre, Dr. John Anderson, Norman Whytock, Miss Janie Mitchell, Miss Barbara Mitchell and the hostess, Miss Lorraine Mitchell.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the heart decorations and refreshments. On top of each pink favor basket was a double heart, concealed in which were the names of Miss Alice Frank and Harry A. James, together with the date of the wedding.

Cards were enjoyed during the evening and musical numbers were given by Mr. Van Valkenburg, a composer of note, and other guests present.

Delegates Chosen to D. of V. Convention

At the regular meeting last night of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, with Mrs. Susie Peck presiding, the following delegates and alternates were appointed to attend the California-Nevada departmental convention to be held at Riverside on May 9:

Mrs. Dora Hall, Mrs. Hattie Tiffany, Mrs. Agnes Richardson and Mrs. Queen Danner, delegates; Mrs. Pearl Moore, Mrs. Almina Bullock, Mrs. Alma Dutton and Miss Florence Chadwick, alternates.

It is expected that a large number of the members will also attend the convention. Arrangements were made for a food-sale to be held by the Tent at 107 North Brand boulevard on April 22.

NORTH SIDE OF WEST BROADWAY, BETWEEN ORANGE AND CENTRAL, SITE CHOSEN FOR NEW POSTOFFICE

Washington Authorities Approve of Proposition Made by Ralphs Brothers; Work on Structure Ready to Start When Plans Are Approved

GLENDALE'S POSTOFFICE will be located on the north side of Broadway between Orange street and Central avenue in a new building to be erected adjacent to the Ralphs block. This was the telegraphic information received by Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson from Washington authorities yesterday afternoon, who approved the amended proposition submitted by the Ralphs Grocery Company, subject to the approval of the budget officer.

Five thousand feet of ground floor space will be provided by the lease, which is an elastic contract, it is understood, anticipating the growth of the postoffice business. Preliminary sketches of the building have been drafted and Albert Ralphs, when interviewed by The Glendale Evening News, gave the following description, in substance:

The postoffice will have forty foot frontage for the lobby, service windows, lock boxes, etc. The remaining 47 feet will be divided into three store rooms. The posal work rooms will extend back 102 feet, the full depth of the building, and will extend sixty-seven feet across the rear, for a depth of forty-three feet back of the store rooms, thus utilizing a great deal of dead space.

No Estimate of Cost

Construction will start as soon as complete plans and specifications can be obtained and at this time no estimate of the cost is ventured. The front will conform with the new Ralphs block and be so built as to accommodate a second floor at some later date. The building will be ready for occupancy sixty days from the date ground is broken.

While only a nominal rental was asked of the government, it is understood, the lowest estimate for the fixtures, exclusive of the safes and similar equipment, is $10,000, so $25,000 will not cover the necessary investment, as near as Mr. Ralphs could determine.

Postmaster Pleased

Of course, Postmaster Jackson is more than pleased to know that relief is in sight, as present facilities are inadequate.

"I let out a whoop of joy," he said, "when I received this message and spread the good news to the clerks, who have been patiently doing the best that's in them with what we have to work with."

With the completion of the postoffice quarters another milestone in Glendale's progress will have been passed. Yet other equally important events are almost hourly awaited.

ROMMEL CONSTRUCTION COMPANY'S BID ON INTERMEDIATE IS ACCEPTED

School Building, Without Auditorium, to Cost About $68,000; Other Contracts Are Made

The contract for the building of the new Intermediate school was awarded to the Rommel Construction company of 144-A South Brand boulevard last night by the grammar school board of trustees.

On account of the lack of funds, it has been decided to eliminate the auditorium for the present. Other changes have been necessary in the plans to reduce the cost.

The bid presented by H. E. Rommel for the building without the auditorium calls for an expenditure of $68,000. He estimated the cost of the auditorium at $24,500. The school board has the privilege of having beech floors installed instead of pine, which will mean an additional expense of $2900 or maple floors, which will cost $3250 more. In case a steam-heating plant is installed $600 more will be added to the cost for the construction of a boiler room.

The next lowest bid was submitted by the Roy L. Kent company of 130 South Brand boulevard. The estimate on the building with the auditorium was $92,100 or $400 less than the bid submitted by the Rommel Construction company. However, the cost of the auditorium was only figured at $17,100. The total bid, according to Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, was about $1500 higher than the bid accepted.

F. J. Donnelly of Los Angeles was awarded the contract for the installation of the plumbing for $4764. He estimated the cost of plumbing for the auditorium would be $332 additional and extra fixtures in case steam heating is utilized will cost $73.

Electric wiring and fixture bids were laid upon the table for further consideration. E. H. Abbott of the Standard Time company received the order to install automatic time clocks for $1290.

The house at 1013 South Glendale avenue, formerly occupied by C. M. Turck, was sold to Peter L. Ferry of 614 East Acacia avenue whose bid of $1100 for the house itself and $75 for the shed was accepted.

The bid submitted by H. L. Houck of $270 for the purchase of the house at 409 West Milford street, formerly occupied by P. J. Nelson and $20 for the chicken house was accepted, also.

Superintendent White was instructed to place insurance on the new Acacia school addition and to order the installation of gas and water meters for the new Grand View school.

The employment of an additional general handy man was decided upon by the board. Among other qualifications he must be a carpenter.

Smell of Sea and Many Thrills in Film

"Moran of the Lady Letty," being played at the T. D. & L. theatre, is another George Melford production, vastly different from "The Sheik," but on a par with that production in magnitude, entertaining value, real pictorial quality and impressive character depiction.

The novel, by Frank Norris, on which the picture is based, proved a popular seller. The scenario, by Monte M. Katterjohn, is replete with all the thrills and magnitude of plot and theme of the original.

Dorothy Dalton, vivacious, striking, beautiful, is the perfect type of the unusual woman, "Moran" presented in the story. Rudolph Valentino plays the leading male role and presents a remarkable character study.

One of the big punches of the picture is the fight between Laredo and Moran, who, blinded with the heat of battle against their common enemy, assail each other without taking cognizance of who they are. In this fight, in which Laredo finally completely worsts Moran, he overcomes the brutal, masculine part of her nature and subjects her to his superior physical strength. From then on she is the woman, no longer able to defend herself, looking to him for protection against other enemies, but her heart has filled with love and womanly attributes, and she turns with a longing heart to the man who has vanquished her. This is the real romantic climax—and withal, the removal of one of the strangest barriers of love opposition ever seen on the silver sheet.

MOTOR BUS NEEDED HERE, OPINION OF TRAFFIC EXPERT

Pacific Electric Has Failed to Make Satisfactory Changes, Says C. D. Gulick

"A volume could be written about the size of the Encyclopedia Brittanica on the advantages of motor bus service as compared with the majority of existing electric lines," asserts C. D. Gulick, city bus expert, in his report to the Public Utilities Commission of Los Angeles.

"Of course," he continues, "we are not presuming that it would be one-half so valuable as aforesaid work, but I dare say that it would be somewhat enlightening, to say the least.

"We have observed that there are a number of people south of the Southern Pacific Railroad and within the city limits of Los Angeles utilizing the service intended for Glendale people," asserts his report. "All of the aforesaid patrons cause considerable congestion in the cars and very frequently people en route to the city of Glendale are compelled to stand until the residents of the above named tracts leave cars and contrarily leaving the people in these districts standing during certain hours of the day while Glendale patrons have had first access to the seats.

No Chance to Sit Down

"There are a great many hours in the day when it is impossible to secure seats even as far north as Colorado boulevard. As the cars proceed south of the Southern Pacific tracks, there are a large number of people who can barely squeeze into the cars, let alone secure a seat.

"There is a great deal of room for improvement on the present existing lines. The present service is inadequate, and, owing to the fact that the company has not made any attempt at improvement, the present service is far below what it has been in the past.

"We find that the majority of the people we have come in contact with in Glendale have come to the conclusion that the present lines cannot or will not make such improvements as will be satisfactory to the citizens. Because of the lack of satisfactory improvements and more particularly because of the present high rates they now desire to utilize what, in their opinion, is a more superior, flexible, satisfactory and convenient service, the motor bus.

What Check Displayed

"Our traffic check and count show that the maximum number of passengers traveling both ways between Glendale and Los Angeles on heaviest travel days does not exceed 9000. The indications are that the daily average number of passengers would be considerably less than the above mentioned numbers. If we secured all the passengers now traveling between Los Angeles and Glendale, we would take care of them with not to exceed twenty-four busses.

"An additional twelve cars added to the regular twelve we propose to operate would give us a total of twenty-four cars running three-minute service, twenty cars per hour with a total seating capacity of 1160 seats per hour, a total of seats during the entire day's operation of 25,520 seats which is almost three times as many seats as our traffic check indicated there are possible or available persons.

"There is, in our opinion, no question but that we would be able to handle the peak hour business with less than the above mentioned number of extra cars. The City of Glendale proposes to float a bond issue sufficiently large to purchase a fleet of cars large enough to take care of all emergencies.

Restrict Private Cars

"If anything could be said that would indicate that our cars would congest the streets of Los Angeles, our candid opinion is that more can truthfully be said that would be quite the reverse. Dozens of people in Glendale, who now use their own private cars would use the bus at the proposed rates and thus one bus would keep a large number of these private cars off your streets. These private cars are not restricted to any particular street and go where traffic is congested which our busses could not or would not be permitted to do.

"We submit that the people of this city are entitled to use the streets not now restricted outside of your so-called jitney zone—Los Angeles street on the south, Hill street on the north, Second street on the east and Ninth street on the west. Inasmuch as we are not asking to enter the present defined congested district or zone, it seems we should not be denied our request and should be permitted to use the streets and routes as per our application until such time as the citizens of Los Angeles see fit to change the present boundary lines of the congested district or zone.

'In Dire Distress'

"The City of Glendale is in dire distress and will suffer great harm, be compelled to waste hundreds of thousands of dollars in additional fares if not permitted to install this modern, convenient, rapid, economical service. The city's future growth and welfare certainly demand and need this service.

"We are sure that the city of Los Angeles has experience in municipal ownership of public utilities and can point with pride to the wonderful monument you have built for the city in your vast and successful water system, harbor and the more recent purchase of the Edison company's holdings, besides being now the proud owners of a successful municipal bus line operating to the great satisfaction of the residents in the vicinity of Griffith park.

"New York owns hundreds of busses and has been trying for years to buy more. Mayor Hylan and the City Council of the City of New York have endorsed the recommendations of Grover A. Whalen, commissioner of streets and structures, that the City of New York appropriate $25,000,000 to purchase 3500 motor busses to replace the fast-collapsing traction lines of that city.

"We feel that there is no justification in the position that the present existing lines should be protected from fair competition or we not be allowed to construct a more modern, advanced and superior means of transportation.

"The mayor, council and citizens of Glendale have faith and believe that your honorable body will not deny the permit and look forward to a decision in our favor in the near future."

BETTER TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE, PROMISE FROM OFFICIAL

Dr. Henry R. Harrower Gets Answer to His Kick and There's No Argument

Promises of better telegraph service for Glendale are contained in the following communication received by Dr. Henry R. Harrower from W. R. Williams, city superintendent of the Pacific division of the Western Union Telegraph company:

"My Dear Mr. Harrower—I am certainly glad that you have let me know of the harrowing time you have had in explaining to our counter clerks in various offices that Glendale is not in 'Hum' county, but in a 'humming' section of a 'humming' state.

"Seriously, I agree with you that it is time that Glendale was recognized as the city it is and that the humiliating county designation be left off in our tariff book listing.

"I also agree that the telegraph service you have been getting is far from what it should have been and to show that I do recognize this, I will say that I recently appointed an entire new force for that office, including a new janitor, of which the office was badly in need. I believe that the service will show from now on a consistent and steady improvement and I should be glad to have you communicate with me further if this is not the case.

"I have set machinery in motion which I hope will eliminate the listing of Glendale in Humboldt county as apparently that place has lapsed into 'innocuous desuetude.'"

Sewer Committee to Meet Tuesday Night

Glendale's sewer commission, of which W. E. Hewitt is chairman, will hold a meeting in the city council rooms next Tuesday night with members of the city council and the city manager invited, it is understood. Others interested may attend and hear what W. B. Matthews, council for the Los Angeles board of public utilities, has to say relative to the cooperation the metropolis will extend outlying communities in solving the sewage and sanitary problems.

to be very low and the water has been in good shape. The only thing is, that either an iron combination or something that causes the water to taste and smell as it does, is present. The fire hydrants are being flushed to clear the pipes and a chemist is analyzing the water to find the exact ingredients.

City Manager's Belief

W. H. REEVES, City Manager: The trouble was caused by changing from the canyon to well water, or the mixture thereof. The wells have not been pumped for five months or more and when they were called into use, they were pumped a day previous and the water wasted into the wash to get the pure stuff. However, that may not have been ample to do that. We have had Dr. Carl Wilson state that there is no chlorine in the water. Peter Diederich, plant and production superintendent, states that such a condition is impossible because the chlorinating plant is located up in the canyon and has been cut off for several days while cleaning the system. I believe that it is the sediment in the pipes, which has been stirred by the change from the springs to the well supply, but people think it tastes like chemicals, so we are getting another analysis by Dr. Wilson.

What Mayor Robinson Says

SPENCER ROBINSON, Mayor of City of Glendale: Our water system has been connected with the Murietta Hot Springs. I am inclined to believe. At least that is what it tastes like. It is fine for rheumatism and for that reason I have not returned to the Springs this week for treatment. Although my rheumatism is getting better, they say two dogs have died. I am afraid to change the water in the gold fish bowl. (All that in the humorous vein).

The city council and the city manager have requested Mr. Diederich to open all the standpipes and fire hydrants and hopes that irrigators will get busy and aid in draining the system. Councilman Sam Davis and myself are going to spend the day investigating the situation and I am sure the trouble will be determined within the next twenty-four hours. I'll agree with everyone that our unusually good supply of water tastes bad, but the chemist assures us it will not injure those who drink it and with the water coming in from the Verdugo Springs tomorrow I am sure it will not be offensive for many more hours.

Phone Show Is Being Held at High School

Glendale Union High school students this afternoon are getting "The Big Idea" of telephone service in both motion pictures and demonstrations with a dummy switchboard. The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company is staging tht show, depicting the development of the telephone business and the growth of Los Angeles.

The demonstration consists of one section of a manual switchboard and one section of the automatic board, with a bevy of beautiful operators explaining all of the connections so that each call may be followed. This is called the "vest pocket edition" of the real thing and permits students to see the actual operation of telephone service without visiting the busy operating rooms.

Manager Fred Deal was instrumental in bringing this troupe of ten people here for the demonstration, which was requested by the school authorities.

Miss Grace Phillips Bride of George Rott

Miss Grace L. Phillips, daughter of Mrs. C. Phillips of 113 South Central avenue, and George Rott of this city were married at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, March 28, 1922, at the residence of Rev. E. E. Ford of the Baptist church, at 326 Fairview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Rott left last night for San Diego on a honeymoon trip and they and Mrs. Phillips and also Mrs. Rott's brother, J. W. Phillips, will leave Sunday for Alberta, Can., where they will make their home. Mr. Rott is a young engineer and is a native of New Jersey, while Mrs. Rott formerly resided in Canada before coming here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hosts at Scotch Party

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. W. Henry of 224 Arden avenue entertained at a real Scotch party Sunday night which was featured by all the b-r-r-s and R-r-r-r-s in the alphabet. Those enjoying the "totally different" dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Mackey of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. James Loudon of Hollywood, Miss Loudon of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. James Black of Los Angeles.

MAKE PLANS FOR DANCE

The local organization of the Disabled American Veterans is planning on staging a dance in the American Legion hall on East Broadway in the near future, the proceeds of which will go toward furnishing their new social quarters at Thornycroft hospital. More definite announcement of the affair will be made within the next few days.

point that service creates thrift, and thrift inspires confidence, three essentials of a successsful organization. He pointed to the different departments as exemplifying service, especially the bond department handled by Mr. Eastman, the escrows handled by L. R. Black and his assistant, Miss French; the work of Assistant Cashier George Farmer and the bookkeeper, Miss Hall.

Mr. Farmer's topic was a "Teller's Troubles," but he denied any existed in the organization. Mr. Black outlined the necessity of co-operation of all parties in the successful culmination of escrow work. Others who responded extemporaneously were Attorney Albert D. Pearce, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and Harry Miller.

Delightful Program

Mrs. Martha Wells and Mrs. Mary Braly extended their greetings and the musical numbers included two songs by Mrs. Helen MacMullin, "My Caravan from China Comes" (McManus), and "My Jacqueminot" (E. L. H. L. Johnson); Mrs. Frank N. Arnold sang "The Star" (Rogers), "Come, Will You to Me" (Vernon Spencer), and Mrs. L. N. Hagood, who accompanied them, played "The Flatterers" (Chaminade), and "The Butterfly" (E. Grieg). It was a delightful program, thoroughly enjoyed, and each of the directors present had a few words to say in compliment.

A vote of thanks for the first dividend was given the officers, on motion of Mr. Braly, and the party retired at a late hour fully satisfied it was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in southern California.

Deaths and Funerals

EDITH MYRTLE BRUCK

Services for Edith Myrtle Bruck, who passed away March 24, 1922, at her home, 1241 South Orange street, were held Monday afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers, Rev. J. G. Blue of the Tropico Presbyterian church officiating. The chancel was banked high with floral tributes and the church was filled to overflowing with the many friends and associates of the departed.

Opening the services the sadly sweet strains of "Face to Face" was rendered by Fannie Marple Retts. Paying a touching tribute to the memory of the departed, Rev. Blue spoke from the text, "I Am He That Comforteth You." Escorted by four color-bearers, Mrs. Mayme Pollock, Mrs. Gertrude Griffin, Mrs. Louise Purnell and Mrs. Susie Peck, who had been associated with Mrs. Bruck in the Woman's Relief Corps, where she, too, had been color bearer, the remains were laid reverently away in the mausoleum at Forest Lawn Memorial park. The pall bearers were J. R. Danner, Howard Crane, Charles Crane, Herbert Crane, W. T. Ward and W. W. Weldon.

Edith Myrtle Bruck was born March 7, 1885, in Ottawa, Ill., and had been a resident of Glendale for the past ten years. She became the bride of Charles J. Bruck on October 28, 1903. She had been an active member of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Kensington club, and also an officer in the Brotherhood of American Yeomen.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Bruck leaves a son, Herbert D. Bruck, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crane, a sister, Mrs. Alice Weldon of Los Angeles, and three brothers, Charles, Herbert and Howard Crane of Glendale. L. G. Scovern Undertaking Company was in charge.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL SQUAD DROPS CONTEST

Team Makes Trip to Hollywood and Is Walloped by the Score of 4 to 0

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News.

The Glendale high school baseball squad yesterday afternoon journeyed over to Hollywood, where they came out second best in a practice tilt with Coach Fred Johnson's Foothillers. The game was a seven inning affair and was the most ragged and loosely played contest of the season, as far as the locals are concerned. The score was 4 to 0.

On several occasions the Red and Black's erstwhile "wrecking crew," which had come through in the pinches in practically every previous game of the season, failed to connect with the horsehide when hits meant runs. But four clean bingles were registered by them in the seven stanzas.

In the field the Glendale nine was no better than when standing at the plate, but one of Hollywood's quartet of tallies being earned. A costly error in the sixth inning by Geib, who dropped an easy fly in left field after two men were out, resulted in the scoring of two runs.

Chester Green Injured

Coach Butterfield was paid the first visit of the year by Old Man Jinx in the third inning, when Third Baseman Chester Green received a broken thumb. He will be out of the game for the next two or three weeks, and his absence from the difficult corner will be keenly felt by his team mates.

This is the second time this term that Green has been injured in an athletic contest. Last fall he sustained a broken rib in one of the mid-season football games, and as a result was forced out of the lineup for more than a month. His position at third will probably be taken by Butts or Terzo during his "lay-off."

Another excuse for Glendale's poor showing was attributed to Pete Fruhling, who failed to show up at the appointed hour. Fruhling, who is easily the foremost infielder in the Central league, has recently been playing a remarkable game at short, his absence from the lineup taking away twenty per cent of the team's effectiveness.

The locals will attempt to even the score with the Foothillers on Tuesday of next week, when the two squads will tangle on the local diamond in a return game.

How They Lined Up

The lineups of the teams in yesterday's game were as follows:

WILL ROGERS HERE IN 'POOR RELATION'

Story Is Simple, but Has Strong Hold on Hearts; 'Our Players' Please

"A Poor Relation," the latest Goldwyn feature comedy, starring Will Rogers, will be presented at the Glendale Theatre for two days, beginning today. The picture is the film version of the stage play of the same name that has been successfully performed for the past thirty-one years.

Will Rogers is an ideal "poor relation." As a quaint and shabby philosopher who fathers and mothers two orphans, though he himself has nothing, the cowboy star will bring laughter and tears to all who see him. The part of Noah Vale might have been born with him.

The story is simple; and virtue triumphs over scheming villainy, but only after many trials that are both amusing and pathetic.

In support of the star are such well known players as Sylvia Breamer, Molly Malone, Wallace MacDonald, Sydney Ainsworth, little Robert De Vilbiss, George Williams and Jeannette Trebaol. Clarence Badger directed the picture.

"Our Players" Please

"Charley's Aunt" was a charming vehicle for "Our Players" in their second stock presentation at the Glendale Theatre last night. More than one good laugh was enjoyed by the well-filled house, an indication that Herbert B. Bethew's idea of tabloid farce comedy as a substitute for cheap comedy will win admirers wherever presented.

Glendale patrons will await with interest the announcement of next Tuesday night's divertisement.

A. A. RICHARDS ARE BACK

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richards and son, Hanford S. Richards, who resided in Glendale about two years ago and then moved to Whittier, have decided, like many others, that there is no place like Glendale, and are now domiciled in a beautiful new home at 354 West Acacia avenue.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Familiarity Breeds Contempt
Support High School Bonds
Your Opportunity to Register
A Roaming Roman Romance

By Gil A. Cowan

GLENDALE cannot plan too large!

The constant reader of this column is no stranger to this city's growth. And as it is said, "familiarity breeds contempt," we hardly pause to think of what tomorrow will bring in the way of building.

Were it possible for the executives of all the rapidly developing businesses and civic institutions to take a trip lasting three to six months and then return—

My, what a shock they would get

In those few weeks they would almost be strangers to the larger part of the population. New structures on every side, hundreds of new homes, would add to the confusion.

But from out of the chaos in their minds would come a greater Glendale—one they could appreciate for another year or two.

The tourist who comes here from the staid eastern community readily notes the conditions which are working to make Glendale the Brooklyn of Los Angeles.

George U. Moyse, principal of Glendale Union High school, the very same fellow who handed me a diploma some years ago, dropped around yesterday afternoon to talk about conditions facing that institution today.

After we had chatted a while, I asked:

"What is the outstanding thing about the coming $600,000 bond issue, Mr. Moyse?"

"The unqualified need of it," he stated.

"Is this program sufficient?" was the next query.

"Yes; it will put us on a working basis. The difficulty, however, is that some parts will have to be built for capacity. The auditorium, for instance, will have to have floor space to accommodate 2700 to 3000 students. That entails a large expenditure which is absolutely necessary at this time. In fact, it is the keystone of the group of buildings which we eventually will have."

And right then and there we agreed that the auditorium cannot be built big enough. Glendale must have it. The high school must have it—and other things.

The $600,000 bond issue should meet the unqualified support of everyone. It is too bad it cannot be bigger, for Glendale is growing by leaps and bounds.

An almost constant stream of Glendale residents last night came to The Glendale Evening News office to register as voters.

A deputy registrar is on duty every night this week to aid those qualified in exercising their first right of citizenship.

Now, then, it costs you nothing. It entitles you to take an active part in the government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Will you spare the moment necessary to call at The Glendale Evening News office tonight and register?

If you cannot come to The Glendale Evening News office to register in the evening, maybe you can slip away and call on one of the following: Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, 408 Oak street; L. W. Ball, 363 West Elk avenue; Mrs. Grace Holman, 533 West California street; Mrs. Sarah Ryan, 332 West Acacia avenue; Spencer Robinson, 612 East Broadway; Mrs. Minette Sherman, 316 Ethel street; Mrs. Gertrude Tisdale, 336 West Acacia avenue; and Alec MacDougall, 553 West Colorado.

It would seem as though the western section of the city is well represented by deputy registrars.

Another royal romance in the offing!

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium are in Rome, the International News dispatches state, to arrange with King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena for a marriage between Crown Prince Leopold of the Belgians and the Princess Yolanda, oldest daughter of the reigning Italian family.

A roaming Roman romance, as it were. And then to think how differently things are done in the good old United States of America.

Leo is sent away to college. Yolanda joins the Follies. Leo goes to the show instead of some other place and almost falls out of the proscenium box—in love.

A wink, a smile, a little kick; after the theatre, supper; a taxi ride; then the ring; and the justice of the peace or marrying parson performs a day or two later. After that, curtains.

Such is the Yankee Doodle way of doing.

Miss Alice Roberts on District Program

Miss Alice F. Roberts of 509 West Milford street and Mrs. N. Coleman of Los Angeles participated in the program given this morning at the district convention of women's clubs being held at Santa Monica. Mrs. Coleman, a popular young dramatic soprano, gave a group of songs, with Miss Roberts at the piano. The numbers given were "Aria, La Giocanda" (Ponchelli), "Robin, Robin, Sing Me a Song" (Stross), and "The Year's at the Spring" (Beach). Miss Roberts and Mrs. Coleman were heard at the Beverly Hills Hotel Sunday night and also at the Highland Park Ebell Club on Tuesday morning.

T. D. & L. BOOSTER CLUB ATTRACTING MANY ENTRANTS

Two Automobiles and Cash to Be Awarded to Those Who Sell Ticket Books

All sorts of enthusiasm was roused by the announcement yesterday in The Glendale Evening News that the T. D. & L. Theatre would give away $3,000 in prizes, including two motor cars, to the successful members of a "Booster Club" now being organized.

Numerous entrants have signified their willingness to sell ticket books, it is stated, and the fact that "everybody wins" meets favor with contestants and purchasers alike. Club members who fail to win any of the valuable prizes, including $1,000 in cash awards, will be given 10 per cent commission while patrons who purchase the books get a 10 per cent reduction over regular admission fees.

To make the event more interesting, "clubs" of $20 in ticket sales will count for more than individual sales, it is stated by the manager. The Booster Club is open to men, women, boys and girls and will result in a personal canvass of every home in this vicinity, it is predicted.

Fair Treatment Guaranteed

The management guarantees fair and equal treatment, no employe of the T. D. & L. is to be interested in the candidacy of any person, and three impartial judges have been selected to count the ballots at the close of contest on May 20.

The Studebaker Light Six was purchased from the Packer Auto Company and is valued at $1275. The second capital prize is the choice of a Ford touring car purchased of Jesse E. Smith, authorized Ford dealer here.

Further information, nomination blanks, ticket book orders and a schedule of votes may be obtained at the T. D. & L. box office or from the manager of the Booster Club department, it is stated.

Ralph Allan, manager of the local T. D. & L. playhouse, declares that it is one of the greatest advertising innovations ever attempted in Glendale and he hopes that Glendale people will avail themselves of this opportunity to win any one of the fifteen alluring prizes which will well repay willing workers.

ADDRESS TEACHERS' CLUB

Miss Wilhelmina Can de Gorrberg of Los Angeles, vice president of the western division of the National Educational Association, addressed the Glendale Teachers' Club yesterday afternoon at the Intermediate school on general educational subjects. She was formerly president of the Los Angeles Teachers' Club and discussed the work being accomplished by that organization. Miss Carrie Noble, principal of the Intermediate school, presided as president of the local club. A resolution of sympathy was voted to members of Miss Clara Midcalf's family.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS TALK ON NUMBER OF MATTERS

General Discssion Is Held at Weekly Luncheon; Various Ideas Are Submitted

residents of Glendale, the mayor declared.

"Music combined with religion, is the foundation of our civilization," he said, in the course of his remarks. "I want you to support the efforts of anyone who comes to this town, bringing fame to our fair city. That is what Glendale needs—more people like Miss Breidt and Mr. van den Berg."

The mayor then told of the hours of practice, the natural art and the years of work which has given these artists their place in the sun and appreciation is all they seek in return. Director Owen C. Emery and Secretary Rhoades echoed his sentiments.

New Chief of Police Is Interested in Music, Also

Colonel John D. Fraser, the new chief of police, showed he was artful as well as artistic when called upon to address the Chamber directors on his work. President V. M. Hollister introduced him. Mayor Robinston introduced him again and after the Colonel had concluded his remarks City Manager W. H. Reeves introduced him some more by saying that "he knows how to handle the situation, having been a big business man all of his life and he soon will have a department you can trust and rely upon."

"I have taken hold of a situation in the position of chief of the police department," said the colonel, "on which I am unable to talk much. But I have been interested in music and art work in my home city"—and from that point on his subject was community co-operation in music as successfully demonstrated in Newark, N. J., where they have a chorus of 1000, metropolitan opera, and an annual festival under the leadership of a paid executive.

"I know there are enough people in Glendale who would be delighted to go into a thing like that," he concluded.

He Promises Improvement In Taste of Drinking Water

Peter Diederich, plant and production superintendent of the Glendale municipal electric and water departments, was called to explain why Mayor Robinson didn't like the drinking water.

Very frankly, Mr. Diederich confessed he didn't know, but told what others thought about it, what other cities had to contend with and promised that there would be an improvement, although everything possible is being done, he said.

The request for an appropriation for a high school band was referred to the advertising committee; the publication of 2000 booklets was approved; and a chautauqua beginning May 25 was announced, among the many miscellaneous subjects brought before the board.

Glendale Gardens Is Proving Popular Tract

Glendale Gardens, the beautiful foothill track lying in the northwest section of the city, is fast selling out, according to Frederick Colby, manager of subdivisions for the R. L. Kent company, 130 South Brand boulevard. Among recent purchasers are the following:

E. W. Bird has purchased the site at 622 North Harvard boulevard and has let a contract for the construction of a six-room modern home to house his wife and baby. He also has purchased two lots on the San Fernando boulevard as an investment.

O. E. Smith of the Fountain Lunch in the Seelig Public Markets; O. L. Zook and F. W. Parr and several members of the Glendale Research hospital staff have purchased lots as investments.

A. Seebach, who owns 100 feet on Western avenue, has bought the residential site opposite his place, while A. E. Manning of Burbank has bought to build and move his family from Burbank to Glendale.

Evangelistic Meetings at Baptist Church

Special evangelistic meetings will commence at the Baptist church tonight and continue until Easter, April 16. Dr. James Holmes, state evangelist for the Baptist denomination, will preach each night. Prof. B. P. Stout, who is also under the state convention, will lead a song service commencing at 7:30 o'clock each night.

"Dr. Holmes comes from Brockton, Massachusetts, where he did a great work as pastor," reports Rev. E. E. Ford. "He is a very forceful preacher and does not use any of the tricks of the modern evangelist. These meetings will be open to everybody. No one will be embarrassed or annoyed at any time. A cordial welcome will be extended to all."

Local Realty Board to Hear W. H. Moor

The Glendale Realty board will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the lobby of the Chamber of Commerce. W. H. Moor, formerly president of the Toledo, Ohio, Realty board, will be the speaker of the evening. He is credited with having introduced the multiple listing system in Toledo and will discuss its operation.

Matter relative to the national real estate convention in San Francisco, May 31 to June 3, will be brought up, also.

Business Women to Change Meeting Time

Resolutions amending the constitution to provide for a ways and means committee, an auditing committee and a rest room committee, and outlining the duties of each, were passed last night at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the clubhouse, with Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president, in charge. A resolution was also presented proposing the change of the meeting nights of the executive board from the last Tuesday to the first Tuesday in every month.

It was decided at last night's meeting that the social meeting for April will be held from 7:30 until 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, preceding the Harry Girard-La Bonti entertainment on Friday, April 28, instead of on Tuesday, April 25. A record crowd is anticipated for the program to be given at that time, "The Trend of Time," music for which was written by Mr. Girard himself, and which will be the last of the series of three entertainments given under the auspices of the club for the purpose of securing funds to finance the rest room which has been established by that organization.

The following nominating committee was appointed, to report at the next business meeting of the club: Mrs. G. U. Moyse, chairman, Miss Ethel Preston and Miss Meddick.

Reports of various committees were given at last night's meeting. After the business session Dr. Laura Brown, chairman of the hospitality committee, took charge and a social time was enjoyed. Refreshments of candy, cake and popcorn were served and a guessing contest provided much amusement.

C. A. Brownell Will Talk at Church Dinner

C. A. Brownell, who for eleven years was in charge of the advertising and publicity department of the Ford Motor company, will be the speaker tomorrow night at the Brotherhood dinner of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church.

R. D. Crumpton of 610 West Broadway will sing several baritone solos and D. S. Hollingshead of the Loomis-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard, will play a number of piano selections.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

MRS. DOTSON SURPRISED

Mrs. W. H. Dotson of 333 West Harvard street was very pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon by a visit from Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Ryland of Lexington, Missouri, whom she had not seen in nineteen years. Dr. and Mrs. Ryland are visiting Dr. Ryland's brother, Rev. Ryland, at Hollywood.

CHINAWARE HISTORY IS EXPLAINED TO CLUB WOMEN

H. B. Tuttle Gives Various Facts of Interest; Exhibition of Collection Attracts

in 581 A. D., they discovered how to put green on pottery. These records taken from the history of the Chinese dynasties are very accurate.

"About the time Columbus was discovering America, an English sea captain was in the Orient and brought back with him some little china bowls made of the porcelain ware. These made quite a stir in England and the potters there began to investigate.

In 1609 King James I was giving a banquet at the launching of a great vessel and as a novelty served tea, which was just then being introduced in that country, in these little china bowls. Experimenting then began in England to make porcelain similar to this ware from China, which later became known as chinaware and then as china.

Secrets Kept In Family

Mr. Tuttle told briefly of the Wedgewood family and how Gilbert Wedgewood had started a factory in 1612. The secrets of the making of the chinaware were kept in the various families, he stated, and when Josiah Wedgewood was 25 years of age he did some wonderful things with the glaze. He introduced what was known as Wedgewood jasper ware. Exact reproduction of this in blue and white was shown by Mr. Tuttle. He told briefly of the work of Thomas Minton, whose porcelain ware and designing are also well known, and of John Daulton and others, including James Haviland and how this American came to start a china factory in France.

The names of "Haviland and Company" and "Theodore Haviland" were explained by Mr. Tuttle. James Haviland had two sons, David and Theodore, and when they grew up each wanted to manage the factory which had been established by their father. In 1892 Theodore Haviland decided to open a factory of his own. The methods employed by both factories are the same, the secret having been given both of them by their father.

Explains Processes

Mr. Tuttle explained the various processes which are necessary before the finished product is turned out of a china factory. The principal material being used in the manufacture of the china clay is of ball clay, which is very sticky, felspar, silica and china clay, which comes out of the earth in great white pieces and is found in Nevada. The process by which the glazing is done, how the designs are transferred to the chinaware and many other details were also explained by Mr. Tuttle.

Especially interesting was his account of the establishment of the Lenox factory at Trenton, New Jersey, and which was the first American factory to have its ware accepted for use in the White House, a wonderfully beautiful plate of this set being displayed by him. The design was of cobalt blue and gold, the inner rim of gold being embossed with three stripes and stars, and in the center was the president's coat of arms.

At the close of the meeting many members availed themselves of the opportunity of questioning Mr. Tuttle regarding rare pieces of china many of them possessed.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the Shakespeare section next Monday at the home of Mrs. Vandewater.

HE'S REGULAR RADIO FAN

Mr. and Mrs. Gail R. Truman, formerly of St. Louis, have recently moved to 355 West Park avenue. Mr. Truman is connected with the Tropico Potteries. He is also an enthusiastic radio fan and has done considerable experimenting along that line. PICNIC SET FOR THURSDAY

The twice postponed picnic reunion of the present and former residents of Nebraska, who are now residing in southern California, has been set for Thursday, March 30, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, according to President R. W. Richardson, who has issued a general invitation to the "Cornhuskers" and their folks to bring basket dinners and enjoy a jolly day and meet old friends again.

HABITS

Habits may be good as well as bad. Because we hear more of "bad" habits we often forget the good ones.

Systematic saving is a good habit. It serves to overcome waste and extravagance and has been at the basis of nearly every big fortune.

The best way of acquiring it is through a Savings Account, added to regularly each week or month. Soon it becomes just as easy and natural to deposit a certain amount in the Bank as it was before to spend it for first one trifle and then another.

The important thing is to make the start—and even that is easy with one of our little Home Banks which we loan free with each account of $1.00 or more.

Better come in and get one today.

C. L. SMITH SECURES CHEVROLET AUTO AGENCY HERE

Interests of Fish & Tarr Are Purchased; Gets Temporary Home at 400 E. Bdwy.

C. L. Smith of 747 Milford street, who has been a resident of Glendale for some time, has purchased the interests of Fish & Tarr in the local Chevrolet agency and has taken temporary quarters at the Standard garage, 400 East Broadway, corner Kenwood. His son, Harry Smith, will be associated with him in the conduct of the business.

The Smiths are well known jobbers and dealers in motorcycles who sold out their business in Los Angeles about a year ago and have been looking for a desirable motor car agency, which they have found in the Chevrolet. It is their intention to build a modern salesroom and service garage on property opposite the Ford agency, corner of Colorado and Brand boulevards.

Changes Contemplated

Oma A. Fish of the retiring firm has been recuperating his health the last two years and O. W. Tarr expects to engage in the real estate business, but for the present he will maintain his garage at 510 East Broadway for the sale of used cars.

Leslie Tarr, who has been sales manager, will devote his time to the completion of his law school course, while other members of the sales and service staff will go with the new owners of the Chevrolet agency, it is understood.

FOR SUNDAY DINNER TREAT!

109 No. Glendale Ave., Glendale

Glendale Ice Cream Co. Is New Enterprise Here, but Is Growing Very Fast

Ice cream had its inception in the shadow of Vesuvius, some one hundred and fifty odd years ago.

The proprietor of a catering establishment in Naples, Italy, it is said, decided things were too warm.

So he set about to freeze cream, flavored and colored to suit the taste of his noble patronage.

That's where the Neapolitan brick got its name, for he mixed things a bit and made a vari-colored dessert.

The Glendale Ice Cream company of 109 North Glendale avenue is a new industry for this city, but represents the outgrowth of an idea more than a century old.

Today the very latest in frozen confections is the Eskimo pie. And they are manufactured here, too, by this enterprising Glendale Ice Cream company.

To the layman there is an element of mystery how ice cream can be dipped in hot chocolate, but it is successfully done. And like an egg, if you do not break the shell, this delicacy will stay good for hours.

The Eskimo Pie provides one of the richest foods known and Glendale-made ice cream is noted for its rich, pure product. Only sweet cream is used and when combined with true fruit flavors it provides the ideal dish whether in bulk, in cones, in sodas, in sundaes or in pies.

The Glendale Ice Cream company employs five people and represents an investment of $25,000. It is efficiently conducted by Edmund G., W. S. and Edward L. Herring. The product is delivered in Glendale, Pasadena, Highland Park, Eagle Rock and Los Angeles.

The factory, which has the most modern machinery, is equipped with two fifty-quart brine freezers which give a capacity of 120 gallons an hour, more than enough to supply the demands of this vicinity. The ice cream maker, who has charge of all of the pasteurizing and freezing, comes here with the highest recommendations. He is well qualified to make all sorts of fancy ice creams and ices and special catering orders.

Also, there is an order clerk in charge who will help the hostess plan the color schemes and explain the correct combinations of flavors, as well as colors, in bricks, individual molds, cakes and other dainties. You will appreciate this service.
